About This Content

 DCS: A-10C Warthog is required to be able to play this Campaign *****

The A-10C Basic Flight Training Qualification campaign puts you in the cockpit of an A-10C Warthog, and tests your ability to fly the aircraft successfully.

Based on real world qualification requirements you will fly 12 performance check rides to execute against pre-defined performance objectives. If successful you will rate a Qualified rating and proceed to the next performance objective.

You will be rated on the following areas and these results will form your final rating:

- General knowledge, airmanship and safety.
- Pre-takeoff, and takeoff.
- Navigation and maneuvers.
- Approach, landing and after landing.
- Communications and task prioritization.

very useful tool for starting the study level Hog, great to be used, together with the manual, the briefings, the web video tutorials, and the forums, if necessary, and together with the other two payware training dlcs as well

a few glitches (non working features) because this is an old release, against the 2.5 current DCS, yet maybe some were encountered because my lack of knowledge
